In Mathematical Literacy, Tampraphon Lohrattanasaneih (Year 6) achieved a high score reaching to the top 5 percent among all participants. Almost achieving the highest mark compared to students around the world, Jordan Hood (Year 7) obtained the top 1 percent, followed by Thananchai Ruangmethanon who achieved the top 5 percent.

In Reading, Pean-Eak Songmanee (Year 4) showed his outstanding skill, putting his name in the top 1 percent. Daron Parreno (Year 4), Sarah Rowan (Year 6), Thien Buathong (Year 6), and Aaron Sirisambhand (Year 7) ranked in the top 5 percent among all participants.

In Narrative/ Reflective Writing, Jane Kittiyanyanya (Year 3) kept her goal high which resulted in a score in the top 10 percent. Nazneen Ngan (Year 4) placed her name in the top 5 percent list. Sarah Rowan (Year 6) maintained her high ranking in the top 5 percent. In Year 7, Aaron Sirisambhand ranked in the top 10 percent and Jordan Hood pushed his effort to the top 1 percent.

In Expositional/ Argumentative Writing, our top 1 percent achiever was Jihun Lee (Year 3). Passara-porn Tay (Year 5) and our Year 6 students, Tampraphon Lohrattanasaneih and Matthew Ngan, reached to the top 5 percent among all participants worldwide. Aaron Sirisambhand impressively achieved a top 10 percent ranking.

Our high achievers not only reflected their ability to do well in class, but also how they kept their goals high and their confidence that if they put in great effort, they would be able to get what they expected in return. Well-done, everyone!
